Detailed information regarding the 2016-2017 calendar

Special Needs Students:

Parents should bring our special needs students directly to the Church from their homes for any Religious function that we have throughout the school year.

You know that we are always happy to have your children participate.

We are aware of the fact that since many of you come long distances it may be easier for you to attend your own church services as a family on days such as Ascension Thursday and the Immaculate Conception.

If you join us on Ash Wednesday or for the May Procession please do the following:

The students should go directly to Church at the regular time for Ashes

Parents are asked to go directly to the Church and join us for the May Procession.

After the distribution of Ashes and the May Procession the children will be dismissed from the Church by their Teachers.

Thursday, May 18, 2017 will be the last class for our Small Group Instruction Students.

Examinations:

Mid-Term Examinations will be administered during class time on Thursday, January 12, 2017 for students in grades three, four, five and six.

Final Examinations will be administered during class to the students in grades three, four, five and six on Thursday, May 04, 2017

Examination Results:

Results of the examinations will be given to the children. Parents please review your child's work, sign the examination and have your child return it to his/ her Teacher the following week, Parents will be notified by email if we should need a conference regarding the results
